

YOU HAVE A RICH UNCLE
MELLON KNOWS BEST
TIRED OF IRAQ
MOLE AND EAGLE

—By Arthur Brisbane—(Copyright 1930 By King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

SECRETARY MELON, keeper of the public purse, announces a satisfactory financial year, and a surplus of $184,000,000 in Uncle Sam's pocket.
Mr. Mellon reduced by $746,000-000 the public debt which now totals 16 billions 185 millions. Not much for such a rich country. Business might be better if bonds were not paid off so rapidly.
But Mr. Mellon probably knows best.

SEVERAL YEARS AGO, you remember, all the world was excited about mandates. France took one mandate, England, absent-mindedly swallowing German colonies, took others, including Iraq. An effort was made to "wish" Turkey as a mandate on this long-suffering nation. Thanks to providence, we escaped that. To be Kemal's tutor would be a job.

NOW England tells Iraq in substance: "Go in peace, join the League of Nations, run yourself."

"That blessed word, Mesopotamia," ancient name for Iraq, has cost the British many millions of pounds.
All that Britain wants now to keep, without expense, the right to "British imperial communications and air routes" through the territory of the Tigris and the Euphrates.

AT 11:40 A. M. YESTERDAY, in Chicago, the Hunter brothers flew through their 500th continuous hour, having taken fuel from another plane many, many times.

They were undecided yesterday about staying up until the beginning of next week. One of the two Hunter brothers is a little tired.
He might well be, after staying in the air for 25 days and nights continuously.

SOME SAY IT'S A CONTEST
"between man and machine." It is not. The machine will be on the junk pile and the Hunter brothers will be hard at work many years from now.

The remarkable thing is that these two brothers, who used to work in a coal mine, now fly for 25 days through the clouds.

The mole stays under the ground, the eagle stays in the air. Man is both mole and eagle.

BABE RUTH "slammed out"
his 31st home run yesterday and is getting on toward 40 years of age. That will interest millions.

Goethe "slammed out" the second part of Faust when he was
72. That interests few.

Legs and arms rule now.
Brains will control men's interest in the future, say 100,000 years hence.

FREDERICK R. COUDERT, distinguished lawyer, raises an interesting point concerning prohibition, and the statement that "the law makes" "the mere possession of liquor unlawful."

The courts, according to Mr.
Coudert, have decided that it is legal to purchase whiskey. Therefore, it must be legal to have it, since it is legal to purchase it, and, therefore, his eminently respectable client who carried whiskey on the hip, and mixed highballs in a restaurant, should not have been arrested.

WALL STREET goes along, in a dull way, like one recovering from knockout drops, or a meeting with a holdup man. The Fourth of July will bring three days rest, and perhaps more vigor.

MULLINS ANNOUNCES LARGE CONTRACT

CANTON PAPER PURCHASED BY BRUSH-MOORE

Canton Daily News Winds Up 97-Year Career With Issue Today

FORMER GOVERNOR ANNOUNCES SALE

All Assets Of Newspaper Are Included In Transaction

(By The Associated Press)
CANTON, July 3.—James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio and owner of the Canton Daily News, today announced the suspension of that newspaper's publication with its editions on Thursday. The real estate, building, circulation and other assets, which have been sold to the Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc., publishers of The Repository are said to approximate a million dollars in value. In Canton Daily News has been publishing for 97 years.

Don R. Mellett, who was assassinated July 15, 1929 by those who had come under fire of his editorial pen was editor of the Canton News and that newspaper received the Pulitzer gold medal award for its fight against crime and vice. The paper was sold to Mr. Cox by H. H. Timken in 1923.

This leaves Canton with one evening newspaper, making it the seventh Ohio city served exclusively by Brush-Moore newspapers. Besides The Repository the list includes The Marion Star, The Steubenville Herald Star, The East Liverpool Review, The Salem News, The Portsmouth Times and half interest in the Ironton Tribune.

Mr. Cox, in his public announcement of suspension, says:
"With this issue The Daily News ceases its existence as an individual newspaper. The assets, including good will and circulation have been sold to The Canton Repository. The purpose of this new arrangement may interest this community—certainly the Daily News reading clientele is entitled to a statement."

Cox Makes Statement

"Canton is not big enough to support two modernly conducted newspaper plants. We are living in a day when scarcely anything is static. Changes come fast, and particular in our industrial centers. For the present at least there is a marked tendency towards larger operating entities, a tendency obviously pro-

Roger Eels Sustains Badly Cut Leg When Warm Motor Starts Running

LISBON, July 3.—Roger Eels, in charge of the Lisbon airport, had his right leg badly cut by an airplane propeller Wednesday afternoon.

The plane had been in flight in charge of John Konegheck, and after it was returned to the flying field and the motor stopped, the ignition was not turned off. Eels went to the plane, caught one of the blades of the propeller to turn it around, and with the engine being warm, the propeller started to revolve immediately, and caught Eels before he could step back from the propeller. He was removed to his home in an ambulance.

LEGISLATIVE RECORD OF CONGRESS NEARLY COMPLETE; END NEAR

New Tariff Law Headed List Of Important Matters Facing Solons During Past Term; One Bill Remains Unsigned

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, July 3.—Congress approached the end of its first regular session in the Hoover administration today with its legislative record, headed by the new tariff law, virtually complete.

It is the longest session of any congress in eight years and it has been marked by a conflict between President Hoover and the senate on almost every major issue with the Democrats and Western Republican independents.

Whether the end could be reached by tonight depended on the settlement of two more disputes between the administration dominated house and the rebellious senate. These final controversies were over the amount of money to be allowed the law enforcement commission and the amount of pension to be granted World War veterans.

Record of Congress

The record for the seventy-first congress today showed the following principal points:
Smoot-Hawley tariff law.
Income tax reduction of $160,000,000.
Ratification of the French debt settlement.
Rivers and harbors legislation.
Expansion of public buildings program.
Reorganization of the federal power commission.
Transfer of prohibition enforcement from the treasury to the justice department.
Expansion of the federal road aid program.
Both house and senate passed measures providing for the disposal

ROAD WILL OPEN ON JULY FOURTH

Homeworth To Placencia Section Of Highway Nearly Completed

LISBON, July 3.—Two of the four miles of concrete have been poured on the Westville-North Georgetown road in Knox township, and it was announced today by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk that this road would be opened to traffic from the intersection with the Homeworth road to the entrance of Lake Placencia at 6 o'clock Friday morning.

Motorists will use this new section of road at their own risk, as terms have not been completed.
Lewis & Copeland of Lima, O., recently awarded one and one-half miles of reconstruction of the East Palestine-Unity road, or a section of the Cox highway in Unity township, propose to begin work on this project next Monday. This will be a 20-foot road in width.

Harry M. Bates of Steubenville, who has been grading and constructing new culverts on the new line of the Salem-Lisbon road will begin to pour concrete on this section, beginning at the north end of the project next Monday. It is considered likely that this road will be opened for traffic before Sept. 1.

CALCUTTA ROCKS IN EARTHQUAKE

Native Music Fails To Prevent Second Tremor Rocking Indian City

CALCUTTA, BENGAL, July 3.—Calcutta shaken twice before dawn by earthquakes, resounded for hours to the blasts of conch shells, blown in Indians to propitiate their serpent goddess, Bhashu.
It is their belief that the goddess, who holds the universe upon her hood, sometimes changes her position, thus causing an earthquake which is supposed to be a punishment for the sins of the people. She is especially fond of conch shell music, which lessens her anger.

After the first quake, which threw residents out of their beds and broke down telephone communication, the populace rushed in to the streets, many blowing the shells, which failed to prevent a second quake later. There were no casualties.

The Chippingtree area of the city was hardest hit. Other Bengal centers felt the shock.
Carnival, Medicine Show Ban Requested

WELLSVILLE, July 3.—Petitions asking that a ban be placed on carnivals, medicine and other forms of traveling shows were presented at council session in city hall.

Sponsors of the plan said that the petitions, which have been in circulation for several days, contain many signatures.

WIRING MUST BE INSPECTED

Power Company Will Not Give Service Until Work Is Correct

With the recent establishment of a branch of the Ohio inspection bureau in this district with headquarters in Youngstown, arrangements have been completed for inspection of all electrical installations before service is connected.

The regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters have always been in force, but heretofore there has been no inspection service to assure the property owner that the regulations were carried out.

Effective July 7 and thereafter the inspection will be provided and certificates of such inspection will be required in all parts of the territory served by The Pennsylvania-Ohio Power and Light company before service connections can be made.

The new service will be a safeguard to all property holders and tions have been taken in wiring an assurance that proper precautions for their property or in other electrical installations.

OTHER CONTRACTS ARE NOW PENDING

Production On New Order Will Extend Through Entire Next Year

The Mullins Manufacturing corporation today announced the closing of a large contract for automobile stampings with one of the most prominent automobile manufacturers in the country.

The amount of the contract and the name of the purchaser were not disclosed by G. F. Keyes, general sales manager, who made the announcement.

Production on the contract will start in the late fall and continue through 1931 in large volume. Preliminary work of making patterns and dies has already started and will result in the immediate addition of a large number of men to the die and tool room, Keyes said.

Many other contracts of importance are pending at the present time and the outlook is that the plant will resume operations on a large scale as soon as manufacturers place the 1931 models of automobiles on the market, according to Keyes.

HOOVER READY TO ISSUE CALL

Would Bring Senate Back Into Session Upon Adjournment

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The call which will bring the senate into special session for consideration of the London naval treaty was completed today except for the insertion of the date and day in President Hoover's desk ready to be promulgated immediately after congress has set a time for adjournment.

The chief executive reiterated his appeal for prompt action on the treaty in a letter which became public last night replying to a petition signed by 24 senators who asked that the treaty debate be postponed until the December session of congress.

"I realize fully the great strain which has been placed upon the senate by the long continued session," the President said. "On the other hand, the national interest in having the naval treaty brought to a conclusion is so great, I feel that I must ask that it be dealt with at the earliest possible date."

Although the special session is being called primarily for ratification of the treaty, the senate also may be asked to confirm the personnel of the recognized tariff commission and the newly created power commission.

A SHREWD PROPOSAL

One of the things expressed by Joseph Stalin, general secretary of the Communist party, in a seven-hour speech before his party's convention recently was a willingness to reimburse foreign corporations for confiscation of their property in return for credits from those corporations. American industrial interests realize the significance of this attitude, since Presidents Harding and Coolidge both stressed the Soviet's repudiation of Russia's debt in their refusals to extend recognition. Their stand was maintained tacitly by Secretary of State Stimson when he declared in April, 1929, that the Hoover administration contemplated no change in policy toward Russia.

The public and private claims of the United States against the Soviet fall into three classes. The first is composed of war loans made by this government to the provisional government of Russia after the overthrow of the czarism and before the Communist party gained control. The principal and accrued interest on these loans is placed at $298,700,000.

The second class comprises Russian government bonds issued by the czarist government and purchased by American citizens. This indebtedness, most of which was incurred during the Russian bond flotations of 1915-16, is placed at $86,000,000. The third class is made up of private American claims for property confiscated in Russia during and after the Communist revolution of November, 1917. The aggregate of these claims is estimated at $400,000,000.

Stalin's willingness to pay is confined largely to the third classification. In return for reimbursement in the form of extra interest payments he would expect credits to the Soviet. The claimants could consider this interest increment as payment toward their claims. At the same time, the Soviet authorities could label it as a premium for obtaining credits and boosting their project, which is "devilishly behind," according to Stalin, in the general level of its industrial growth.

It is a policy which has been advanced by Stalin on previous occasions. In a tentative agreement with France in 1924 Russia was willing to make a lump payment to French bondholders in return for recognition and guarantees of a peaceful French policy, while still refusing to recognize any liability for loans advanced during the czarist regime. The aggregate of Russian bonds held in France is estimated at between three and five billion dollars, but Premier Poincaré repudiated the agreement.

In the negotiations which led to recognition of Russia last fall by the Labor government of Great Britain, an agreement also was reached to negotiate on British claims. Soviet proposals to dicker with the United States on a similar basis have met with no official favor.

"Lenin's best pupil" has reasoned shrewdly in his proposal to American private interests. His interest in Russia's industrial growth is not much greater than that of certain American corporations which believe a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush and are willing to act accordingly.

MOONEY AND BILLINGS

There is a rumor current that Governor C. C. Young of California will pardon Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings within a month. It must be taken with a grain of salt, although it merits more than the usual consideration. Certain California political candidates are believed to be supporting a movement for release.

Mooney and Billings are the nation's best known victims of blinded justice. For 14 years they have been imprisoned on evidence which has been proved false to the satisfaction of the judge, the jury, the assistant prosecutor and the police captain whose opinions sent them to jail—Mooney, for first degree murder; Billings for second degree murder. Both were found guilty of complicity in the bombing of a Preparedness day parade in San Francisco, July 22, 1916.

The most damaging testimony against Mooney came from an identifying witness, Frank C. Oxman, a cattle dealer. Suspicious letters from Oxman to a friend in Illinois, if authentic, have proved since that the cattle dealer was paid to testify falsely. He was tried for perjury but acquitted.

In recent years other witnesses against Mooney have recanted their testimony. Also, photographs have been produced to show he was a mile from the scene of the explosion approximately five minutes before it occurred. A recent application to Governor Young for a pardon on the grounds of innocence was endorsed by Judge F. A. Griffen who tried Mooney, all 10 of the jurors still living, the prosecuting attorney against Billings, the district attorney of San Francisco and many of the police officials who investigated the bomb explosion. No official action has been taken, however.

Mooney and Billings were probably victims of their past records. Both had been found guilty of unlawful possession of explosives previous to 1916; both were anathema to conservative organized labor and business leaders. War-time hysteria easily produces evidence against such men.

Governor Young may grant pardons to Mooney and Billings. That would let them out of jail, but it would not absolve California officialdom from its crime of negligent, malicious delay. It is a cheerless commentary on the condition of justice when it can only be moved to action by politics—the same force which apparently has kept two innocent men in jail for 14 years.

What Others Say

THE PERISHABLE SHORT STORY
At the dissolving lower end of the Grandeur glacier, in East Tyrol, the body of a game keeper named Matternhorn was found the other day. In the upper part of the glacier, he had fallen into a fissure of the ice 43 years ago. His watch marked the moment of his death and his hunting rifle of ancient pattern, telescope and hunting knife were well preserved.

It recalls a famous magazine short story of a generation ago. A couple were on their bridal tour in the Alps when the bridegroom fell into a deep crevasse. The mountaineering bride lingered in the locality for a while and seemed before she left to obtain some comfort from a studious young man who whispered sympathetic words.

Fifty years later an old, bowed woman came back to the mountains, and with a grizzled scientist, who also appeared, went daily to the foot of the glacier, where it melted in waters forming the head-streams of the country's rivers. After a time, a form was seen indistinctly some distance back in the ice and a little later the aged, wrinkled woman recovered the body of her bridegroom, unchanged and as youthful as the day he fell, with the edelweiss in his buttonhole still unfaded and even fresh.

At the supposed date of the tragedy and even at the date the story was written to win much praise, little was popularly understood about the movements of glaciers. What the studious young man had whispered to the widowed bride was that, some day, she could be reunited to her lost husband and, as the grizzled scientist later, he won vindication and distinction when his careful calculations proved correct. However, the materials available for the effective type of novellette undergo change and deterioration the same as other things recognized as ultra-perishable. With the knowledge which even present dwellers of the great plains have, the scientific background of the story, and perhaps even the story itself, would now seem commonplace.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The Stars Say—

For July 4

An active, lively and generally fortunate and progressive day is forecast from the predominant stellar mutations. There should be much moving around, with pleasant as well as profitable activities, with new contracts and affiliations under encouraging sway for those devoting the holiday to the attainment of the ambitions. It is an excellent time to push forward to the goal of the highest ambitions during the year. New projects and plans, as well as the renewal of old contracts and agreements under more advantageous terms, are encouraged under prevailing auspicious planetary rulership, which bears an expanding influence in all directions.

A child born on this day should be endowed with many excellent capabilities making for distinguished success and position in life. It should aim for high goals.

For Saturday, July 5

An interesting and eventful day is the augury based on the ruling lunar and mutual aspects, especially for those in the employment of others or those proposing to negotiate with those in positions of importance or authority. It is a time for pushing for increase, honors or promotion, as elders will be kindly disposed. It is probable that there may be an element of secrecy or subtlety in agreements, but it is urged that funds be handled with every precaution. Also sign papers with care.

Those whose birthday it is may look for an interesting and eventful year, in which advancement, favors and honors may be expected from elders or those in positions of power and authority. Sign all papers with care and be discreet in handling all moneys. A child born on this day should be clever, capable and popular and should be well favored by elders and persons in places of power and authority.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

Correct His Early

Examination of a million children of pre-school and school age in the city of New York reveals the fact that there are all too many children with one or more physical defects. Sooner or later, unless corrected, these troubles will grow greater and produce ill health and unhappiness for thousands of individuals.

On the eighth annual school health day more than one million children were observed for possible nutrition defects, defects of the eyes, ears, teeth and respiratory system. It is interesting to note that these examinations are to be speedily followed up with treatment remedial measures and health education.

Teachers will make use of these records in their instruction in hygiene. They will have this survey as a basis for teaching their pupils rules of hygienic habits and behavior. That this is a splendid opportunity for hygiene and moral education among our young citizens there is no doubt and much good must result from it.

Appeals are being made to parents for cooperation with the health authorities in remedying the defects reported. Unless these are remedied the examination is useless. Parents should have their children treated for any physical defect whatsoever.

It has been found that 65 to 95 per cent of these million children have one or more physical defects. In four groups over 50 per cent had teeth defects. One-third had enlarged or diseased tonsils; 95 per cent had some degree of defects of vision; 10 to 35 per cent were suffering from adenoids and 4 to 18 per cent were victims of malnutrition.

Just how much time people lose from gainful occupations through some of these disabling illnesses is hard to reckon. Recent surveys show that among 36,000,000 wage earners in the United States, at least 250,000,000 work days per year are lost. Among the 24,000,000 school children, 70,000,000 days are lost during the school year. This takes into account only about half the population of the country however.

Follow-up work by the board of health among these children will be carried out as speedily as possible under the medical inspectors. Every advantage given the growing child helps to give health, strength and bodily vigor. We cannot be too generous in giving to these future citizens the attention they need and deserve at our hands.

"ONCE I was worried. Meal-time was getting on my nerves. I prepared many appetizing dishes, but John simply would not eat—just 'minded' at his food. Perhaps sometimes a little grouchy. I began to fear he was 'slipping.' What was I to do? Love, home, happiness, business success—all depended upon an improvement in his condition. The blood-ionic idea suggested itself to me. My Druggist recommended S.S.S. He told me that S.S.S. was a great blood tonic; that it had been successful for over 100 years; that it was made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and was beneficial to the most delicate system. Also that it would build up the blood and improve the processes by which the body is nourished. I brought home a large size bottle. John agreed to try it. Well, in just a few days I could see the difference. His improvement has been so rapid he is going to take several more bottles, and not only that, but he is now telling his friends to take S.S.S."

You owe it to yourself to try S.S.S. Its tonic effects will surprise you.

S.S.S. is daily helping people to regain their strength. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. It promotes a keen appetite, gives vitality to the body, clears the skin and wards off diseases. All Drug Stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

LAW, OUTLAWS HUNTING GANG MEMBER TODAY

Jack Zuta Much Sought
By Elements After
Lingle Death

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 3.—The law and the outlaw hunted Jack Zuta, the gangster, today.

If the law found him first, it meant to put some pointed questions to him concerning Jack Lingle's murder. If the outlaws found him first, then it was unlikely that Zuta ever would be able to answer questions for anybody.

The law had Zuta—resort keeper and Moran-Aiello gang ally—as late as Tuesday night, but let him go. Since then, however, a brazen attempt has been made upon his life by gangsters who dared to attack him with guns in the heart of the brightly lighted loop, despite the fact that he was given "safe escort" through the heart of the city by a police lieutenant.

That attack has aroused a renewed desire on the part of authorities to talk some more with Zuta. They believe he must have very important information concerning the slaying of Lingle, Tribune reporter.

Original Owners Held

With Frank Foster, original owner of the Lingle death gun, under indictment for the murder and under arrest in Los Angeles, a new name today came into the investigation—the name of Ted Newberry, gangster chief and man of orange gang alliances. The Lingle murder investigators have learned that Newberry was present in the Illinois Central subway at Randolph st. and Michigan ave. at the time an assassin put a pistol against Lingle's head and fired.

Lingle and Newberry were well acquainted, the police said.

The gun used to kill Lingle was one of six sold by Peter Von Frantzius, sporting goods dealer, to Foster and Newberry, new evidence now indicates. Later Newberry returned with one of the guns—the one with which Lingle was shot—and asked Von Frantzius to file away the serial number, which Von Frantzius did.

The statement Foster is reported to have made in Los Angeles yesterday that the gun had been taken from him by a Chicago police officer, Daniel Healy, was denied by Healy today.

GOLF CONQUERER GETS GREETING

Gotham Holds Open Arms to Bobby Jones On Return From British Invasion

NEW YORK, July 3.—Flushed with a string welcome celebrating his dual victory abroad, Bobby Jones today turned his face westward seeking new golf worlds to conquer.

The modest lawyer and bank director of Atlanta, Georgia, stepped off the liner Europa yesterday to be accorded a reception befitting the first American to win both the British amateur and open championships.

Above the din of shrieking sirens, popping firecrackers and the cheers of thousands, Bobby managed to say that he had no plans for retirement from competitive golf; that he had given no thought to winning all four major championships this year, which include the American open and amateur yet to be played; and that luck played a large part in his triumphs at St. Andrews and Hoylake.

CONGRESS

confident of its ultimate approval by the President. Some believed the presidential signature was being withheld while Mr. Hoover waited to see if congress was going beyond his figures in the World War pensions rate.

The session saw the president and a senate at odds on two nominations to the supreme court. The Republican independents led by Senators Borah of Idaho, and Norris of Nebraska, fought the nomination of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice but were defeated two to one. They opposed the nomination of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina, to the high tribunal and defeated him. Owen Roberts, of Philadelphia, who was named in Parker's place, was approved without opposition.

Farm Relief Thrashed Out

The row between the President and the senate over farm relief, which was thrashed out to meet the administration's wishes in the special session called a year ago by Mr. Hoover was revived this session. The coalition of senate Democrats and Republican independents again adopted the export debenture plan of farm relief, making it a part of the tariff bill but it was again rejected by the Republican house.

The close of this session, whenever it comes, will find Mr. Hoover without congress in action for almost the first time since he entered office in 1929.

However, some investigations have been ordered to proceed this summer. The senate has directed an inquiry into the leasing of temporary post office buildings by the government.

The senate also has authorized a general inquiry into the banking situation. A committee headed by Senator Glass, Democrat, Virginia, will start this study next fall.

Education On Nature Needed In City Schools; Ignorance

Educator Tells Of Lack Of Knowledge In Simple Things

By EDWIN SCHONLEE
Staff Correspondent for The News

COLUMBUS, July 3.—Can children be educated not knowing the grass in the field, the birds in the tree tops, or the fish in running brooks? Are not superintendents aware that, in the building of large cities we are depriving children of nearly every nature contact?

These were the questions presented by Van Eyrie Kilpatrick, director of school gardens, public schools, New York city, in an address before the School Gardening Association of America here today. The meeting was held in connection with the annual convention of the National Education association.

Leads To Ignorance

BODY FOUND IN WATERS OF ERIE

Believe Man Was Runner
Of Rum; Identification
Made By Police

CLEVELAND, July 3.—The mysterious disappearance six weeks ago of Morris Komissaro, 27, reputed rum runner, was believed by police to have been solved today with the finding of a body, shot in the head and weighted with a 50-pound anchor, in Lake Erie a mile and a half west of Rocky River.

Detective Carl Zicarrelli said he was convinced the body was that of Komissaro, who was last seen when he left a downtown hotel May 27 with $5,000 in his pockets, saying he would "be back in an hour."

At that time, friends and associates of Komissaro told police they were afraid he had been "taken for a ride." Efforts to find Komissaro's allies today resulted in failure, however. The sought were believed to have fled to avoid questioning.

The body was found late yesterday by L. J. Rosol and Edward Hoffman, fishing out a new speed boat. The man had been shot in the head and the anchor tied to his body. There was no water in the lungs. Police said the body had been in the water six weeks or more.

It was considered likely the murder had been committed further out in the lake and the body weighted and thrown into the waters in an effort to hide the crime from both gangland and police.

TOBACCO TOPIC AT GATHERING OF EDUCATORS

Alcoholic Drinks Also In Discussions Of National Gathering At Columbus

(By The Associated Press)

COLUMBUS, July 3.—Resolutions urging vigorous and impartial enforcement of the prohibition law and condemning the use of fraudulent advertising to foster cigarette smoking were presented to the representative assembly of the National Education association today.

The committee on resolutions asked all teachers to "emphasize the evil effects of alcoholic drinks, tobacco and other narcotics," and commended for use in the schools selected periodicals which do not carry tobacco advertising.

Other resolutions called for federal aid to the states to meet a "serious educational emergency that exists in rural areas" and expressed belief that legislation should be enacted safeguarding for educational and governmental use a reasonable share of the nation's radio broadcasting channels.

One of the questions of teacher's tenure bills and retirement systems the committee asked the N. E. A. to pass the following resolution:

"The National Education association believes that teachers should hold their positions during good behavior and competent service. It urges the passage of tenure and retirement laws in each state based on the principle of justice both to teachers and pupils. Such laws should tend to protect teachers from injustice, to place teachers on a professional basis, to guarantee to competent teachers the benefits of retirement laws and to secure to teachers reasonable personal and academic freedom; but would not prevent the discharge of teachers for incompetency, immorality or unprofessional conduct."

The surgeons finally removed it, and Mr. King announced that he would stick hereafter to sabers and such.

CLOSED BANK TO OPEN ITS DOORS

Examiners Find Finances
In Excellent Shape;
New Direction

CINCINNATI, July 3.—The Brotherhood of Railway Clerks National bank, closed by the directors a week ago today after a million-dollar run by depositors, will be reopened Saturday as a branch of the Central Trust company.

Charles W. Dupuis, president of the central trust, announced the deal last night after national bank examiners had found the Brotherhood bank in good condition. Depositors will be protected in full and returned to their former status, Dupuis said.

The Brotherhood bank was closed to protect depositors who began heavy withdrawals after hearing that the bank had loaned A. W. Shafer, alleged million dollar check writer and embezzler, $200,000 on forged stock certificates, according to United States District Attorney Havel E. Mau.

"A modern newspaper plant is not only expensive in its physical installation but its operating costs are multiplied. It is now the purveyor of practically everything of public interest. When you add together in dollars and cents all of the patronage which two newspapers, by diligence and enterprise, can gather together in Canton, there is not a sufficient net return on the capital invested nor the labor and management involved. That is the precise situation.

Ohio Judges Will Discuss Divorces In Summer Meeting

LIEBON, July 3.—During the annual meeting of the Ohio State Bar association at Cedar Point, commencing July 16, a sectional meeting will be held by the State Association of Common Pleas Judges of Ohio, of which Judge J. D. Barnes paper plant, its subscription lists and all real estate owned by The Daily News company.

Extends Good Wishes. "Every obligation of The Daily News will be met fully, even to paid-in-advance subscriptions. If the transfer from one newspaper to another is not desired. Frankly, one does not give up contact with one hundred thousand newspaper readers with our faithful employees unemotionally. On the other hand there has been an impressive confidence. On the other a vigilant devotion to responsible tasks.

Those behind the consolidated movement enter upon a new order with our very well wish, first for a service to the public in keeping with the traditions of a great profession, and second, a satisfactory financial return.

Starting as The Stark County Democrat in 1833 the paper has passed through a series of 10 ownerships during the 97 years of its continuous existence. Henry Leonard of Massillon, acquired meager printing equipment and began publication in Canton. Three ownerships followed in rapid order and in 1848 John McGregor, Sr., and his son Archibald, secured control and operated the paper until 1888. Gen. Isaac Sherwood, John McGregor, Jr., and John C. Harmon followed as publishers. In 1911 H. H. Tinklen, head of the Tinklen Roller Bearing Co., purchased the property and continued as its publisher until its purchase by Gov. Cox in 1923.

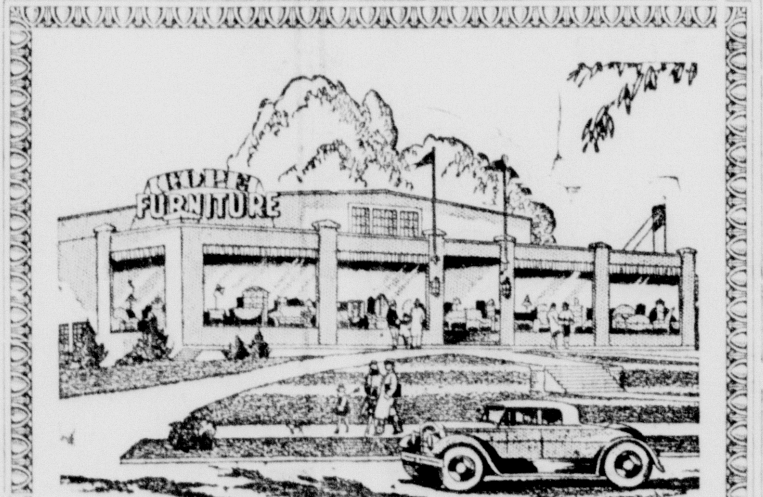

Former Gov. Cox, regarded as one of the leading newspaper publishers of the county, having disposed of The Canton News, now owns The Dayton News, Springfield News, Springfield Morning Sun and Miami, (Fla.) News.

Face "Lifted" In 3 Minutes

Right in Own Home!

Why go to the inconvenience and expense of having complexions rejuvenated and skin texture improved by painful and tedious methods when one 3 minute treatment with Amia Nourishing Cream youths the face so remarkably that any ugly, wrinkled and sallow complexion looks at least 15 years younger.

Let's be sensible and admit there's no cleansing, vanishing cream in the world which can remove wrinkles, youthen, smooth and soften skin texture. Cleansing cream, etc., do just what their names signify and NO MORE.

But Amia sinks down thru the pores (it contains the ONE and ONLY oil known to science which can penetrate the skin surface). That's why it can nourish, stimulate to new life those broken-down tissues and tiny blood vessels (the "tear skin") beneath. A splendid muscle tightener and refiner of enlarged pores. Appealingly scented.

And this great rejuvenator costs but a mere $1.00 a jar which lasts many weeks, delightful weeks in which you'll notice your skin growing smoother and velvety soft, adorably youthful and crystal clear. Get Amia at J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores

GUARD OFFICER FACES CHARGES

Large Sums Missing From Federal And State Accounts, Auditor For Government Claims

CHICAGO, July 3.—Col. Charles J. Kraft, cashier-in-command of the 202 coast artillery, Illinois National guard was under federal indictment today on charges of embezzling approximately $100,000 from the government.

While no estimate of the state shortage has been made, James C. Leaton, assistant United States district attorney, said in all probability it would equal the federal loss.

Padded payrolls, vouchers and a double renting system of the unit's armory were used in the embezzlement, Kraft said.

Col. Kraft, who saw wartime service with the 131st field artillery, was relieved of his command last arch by Col. Richings J. Shand, disbursing officer, U. S. A., and acting adjutant general after an audit had disclosed misappropriation of both state and federal funds.

MOVIES

"MURDER ON THE ROOF"
At The Grand

Columbia pictures, has made the famous mystery serial, "Murder on the Roof," into a thrilling all-talking motion picture.

Against a background that for novelty and picturesqueness is unique—the entire action takes place on top of a metropolitan skyscraper—a strong, thrilling plot, with a mystery element that gripped last night's spectators and held them in absorbed suspense until the final denouement, was developed. The story has lost nothing in sophistication and tense dramatic climaxes by its transference to the screen.

Of the all-star cast, Dorothy Revier and David Newell might perhaps be picked out for special comment.

Added Attraction
Columbia's all-talking comedy, "Personality," which opened at the Grand theater last night, is one of the season's greatest contributions to the field of sophisticated comedy.

Interest in the plot centers about Sandy Jenkins, a forty dollar a week draughtsman, who married Lil Morse, a pretty flapper. In order to prove that he is somewhat of a money-maker, he bluffs his way into a better job.

A short period of luxurious living in an expensive apartment follows. When Sandy's employer discovers his deception, he fires him.

The crash follows. The credit people move the furniture out of the apartment; Lil goes home to Ma; and Sandy, within a few weeks, is forced to the low status of a vacuum cleaner salesman. How Lil finally rescues Sandy, and matters are happily adjusted, supplies the rest of the action for this diverting bit of entertainment.

Stone Face Of Washington Unveiling At Noon July 4

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 3.—George Washington's great stone face, carved in black hills granite, will be unveiled Fourth of July noon.

Drilled on Mount Rushmore by Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, the head is three score feet from wig to chin, scaled to the size of a man 420 feet tall—equivalent to a 42-story skyscraper.

The American flag used to veil the head is 72 by 40 feet. It will be undraped by little Doane Robinson, of Pierre, S. D., grandson of Doane Robinson, South Dakota's state historian who first suggested the Rushmore memorial.

Stone portraits of four presidents—Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt—will be carved on the granite wall, authorized by congress as a memorial to American ideals.

Eastern Clubs Dish Out Rough Treatment To Western Outfits

Win 46 Of 65 Games From Invaders With Gains In Standings

Of 65 games played in their recent home stand, the eastern clubs of the American league won 46, leaving only 19 victories for the western clubs.

Washington put the big spurt into the finish of the intersectional play yesterday, moving into second place by winning both games of a double header from the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4 and 5 to 3. The first contest went 12 innings.

The double victory gave the Senators a game's advantage over their rivals, the Athletics and the Yankees, both of whom divided double bills.

The Athletics five game winning streak was broken when Detroit beat the champions, 4 to 3, behind the fine pitching of Earl Whitehill in the first game, but they returned to slam Waite Hoyt for a 7 to 2 triumph in the second.

An injury to Babe Ruth and the slugging feat of Carl Reynolds shared the interest as the Yankees won the first game from Chicago, 5 to 1, as the Babe hit his 31st homer of the season, then took a 15 to 4 drubbing in the second. Reynolds equalled two records by hitting three home runs in successive times at bat and by driving in eight runs. Ruth made a great attempt to catch the second homer and only succeeded in entangling his hand in the wire guarding the bleachers and injuring it painfully. One finger-nail was completely torn off and the damage may keep the Babe out of the coming series with the Athletics.

Boston put on a fine late rally to take a single game from the badly slipping Cleveland Indians, 5 to 4.

The National league pennant race became more complicated than ever as the New York Giants and Brooklyn Robins gave a great display of civic spirit before starting their own private fray. The Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs, 9 to 8, by putting on the better rally in the ninth inning, while the Robins pulled out a 6 to 5 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals on the strength of Ray Phelps' pitching.

The Boston Braves also improved their position a bit, turning back Pittsburgh's threat to take fifth place with a 6 to 4 triumph. Harry Seibold, Boston's reliable veteran, did the major share of the work.

Sergeant Sammy Baker Badly Beaten By Gans In Cleveland

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, July 3.—Sergeant Sammy Baker, the veteran New York welterweight champion, was in a serious condition today from head injuries suffered in a lacing at the hands of Baby Joe Gans of California in their 12-round fight at Taylor Bowl last night.

Baker, collapsed in the last round and was taken to St. Alexis hospital, where an x-ray was ordered today to learn whether he was suffering from a hemorrhage of the brain or a fractured skull.

Baker, reeling from Gans' onslaught and at the limit of endurance from eight knockdowns, staggered backward and sank to the canvas after a minute and 35 seconds of the final round. As Referee Matt Brock tolled nine, the New Yorker gamely pulled himself to his feet to face another two-listed flailing from his Negro rival. He sank to the canvas once more and

Buelow Bucks; Jack-Maxie Bout May Go By Boards

NEW YORK, July 3.—A complicated financial argument in which Joe Jacobs and Arthur Buelow appear to be endeavoring to outwit each other, has suddenly terminated the plans for a return bout between Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey at the Yankee stadium in September.

Yesterday Madison Square Garden had Sharkey's name on a contract and had hopes of getting Schmeling's signature through Jacobs, when Buelow, the German-deposed manager, bobbed up with an eight page document that

Fight Results

CHICAGO — "Tully" Griffith, Sioux City, Ia., outpointed Johnny Risko, Cleveland, 10-1. Paul Swiderski, Syracuse, N. Y., outpointed Frankie Summs, Cleveland, 10-1.

CLEVELAND — Baby Joe Gans, California, stopped Sergeant Sammy Baker, New York, 12-1.

New York — Kid Chocolate, Cuba, stopped Dominion Petrone, New York, 6-1.

DES MOINES, IA. — Hynde Wiseman, Des Moines, knocked out Billy De Poe, St. Paul, 6-1.

PITTSBURGH — Harry Harris, Bellaire, O., outpointed Harry Williams, Pittsburgh, 8-1. Eddie Speaks, Louisville, outpointed Jack Denery, Cleveland, 6-1.

was entirely unsatisfactory to Jacobs, who now is in charge of Maxie's interests.

When Schmeling first offered to give the Boston sailor a return bout, he did so with the proviso that he be given an out and out release from Buelow to whom he is under contract until Oct. 13 of this year. Sharkey agreed to see that Buelow got his 26 per cent of lengthy document. Buelow retained the right to sue Schmeling for any other remuneration he thought might be coming.

And upon that clause hangs the failure of the match to go through as Jacobs said nothing doing. Schmeling must have a positive release.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Independence Day Menus

Whether it's to be a picnic in the woods or a day of rest in the home, Independence Day should be a day of freedom for everyone—mother, father, housekeeper, maid. Which means that everybody does a little bit of cooperating, and also that as much as possible of the preparations are made the day before. Good menu planning will make a great deal of difference in the amount of freedom for all—freedom from extra service cooking, dish-washing.

Certain foods, far from being second-rate if a day old, are even better. Jelly, meat or fish loaf, for example, or any kind of aspic. Chicken, veal, tuna fish, diced shrimps, combined with celery, green peppers, olives, pimientos—they can be made a day before and, if desired, left in the mold and carried off to the picnic lunch, to be unmolded on a bed of lettuce when and as needed.

A large bowl of vegetable salad is also easy to prepare ahead, and everything but the lettuce included. Starchy vegetables are best for this purpose—cooked beets, carrots, potatoes and three or four green vegetables—lettuce, watercress, radishes.

celery—must be kept chilled until the last moment. All the cheeses make a free-and-easy adjunct to the Independence Day meals. A few varieties—and a little of each—are more enjoyable than a too generous portion of only one kind.

Jellied Meat Loaf

2 cups cooked veal or chicken, diced
1 cup chopped celery
1 green pepper, chopped
1 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon gelatin
2 tablespoons cold water

Heat salad dressing, meanwhile soaking gelatin in cold water. When gelatin is softened add to the hot salad dressing, then add the meat and chopped vegetables. Add salt and pepper to taste—this will depend on how much the mayonnaise is seasoned. Pour into a brick mold and when cool place in the icebox to harden.

Serve on a bed of shredded lettuce or watercress, accompanied by a thick dressing. Mayonnaise or boiled dressing may be used, or a delightful accompaniment is a mixture of equal quantities of sour cream and chili sauce. Or a thick sour cream, plain, may be served.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Budgets like diets, have their ups and downs. Recommended as an infallible panacea for financial ailments in the household, the budget has thousands of friends who pay high tribute to its potency. But it must also be admitted many there are who regard a budget as a mere fad, no help whatever.

The fact is that a budget is not a self-operating cure-all. It cannot of itself save money, pay debts, furnish a house and restore peace of mind to harassed young couples who enjoy living a little beyond their means. But that is what a great many people expect of it. The word "budget" has been used so loosely that we forget what it really means. We look on it as a sort of economic pill—all you need to do is to prepare a neat little table indicating how much should be spent for food, rent, clothing, and so on—and presto, all troubles are over.

The fact is planning a budget is only half the battle. It takes agreement between the one or two persons who spend the income to make the budget work. Without this cooperation all is theory. The number of young couples who start out with the firm intention to stick to a plan of expenditure—and then make a flop of it—must be legion. Sometimes they simply cannot do a thing with figures. Can't add or put them down straight or in the right columns. Or forgets. And he may be guilty too. One of the two may be a perfect wizard in sticking to the budget plan, never spend a dollar more than it allows for any item.

But of what avail is it, if one is circum-pet and the other careless? The budget falls flat—and no blame attach to the idea, either. Just weak human nature, that's all!

However, there are a few mechanical contrivances that are fine props to those inclined to backslide. Card systems, very simple, very accessible to both, are easily prepared or may be purchased ready to use. They are a little more convenient than books, although they have the disadvantage of being easily lost.

And there is now a new kind of household expense book that is even simpler than either of these. It looks like a thick volume but when opened it is an expanding manila file. It contains a number of compartments each with a printed flap indicating what the space is for—Rent, Light, Heat, Food, Clothing, Entertainment, and so on. Whenever money is spent a receipt or a written record is placed in the compartment. And at the end of the month when bills are paid, all entries are made at once.

Some of these books are rather handsome affairs, finely bound in decorated leather, so that they are quite suitable for wedding gifts.

Dancing Teacher on Trial

With the selection of a jury under way, John Bolton, Los Angeles (inset), dancing teacher, faced trial for his life on charges of murdering his wife, Lucille. Bolton is charged with slaying his wife in an act near Topanga Canyon, and then turning the death gun on himself to divert suspicion. He claimed his wife had been shot to death by bandits. Mrs. Lucille Bolton, the slain girl is pictured here with her mother, Mrs. Alice Swan.

Built the Doctor's Way

MANY physicians, who specialize in the care of children, endorse and prescribe Simplex Flexies. In these dainty, long-wearing little shoes the feet develop as nature intended. Flexies let the child's feet rest squarely on their natural three points—no rocking sidewise to bow the plant legs in or out. Flexible soles—glove-smooth lining. No rough seams nor wrinkles to torture the tender feet. And Flexies are as long-lived as they are healthful.

XXth Century Overhead System

Distributes Heat More Evenly

Requires Less Fuel to Operate

Here is another diagram of an actual XXth Century Overhead Heating System.

This long, narrow bungalow is being successfully heated in every room. The ordinary furnace system could not heat it.

The greater velocity of heat traveling up the main pipe carries it farther away from the furnace than possible by the old system.

Heat registers are in the ceiling. Furniture can be placed where desired without fear of scorching. The basement is free from heat pipes giving more space for laundry and other purposes.

Remember one thing—the XXth Century Overhead System heats every room more evenly than the regular system. It is accomplishing wonders in homes hard to heat. See us for complete details.

FAMOUS MARKET AID TO WIVES

Ready - To - Serve Service
Offered At Store;
Saves Time

Women who value their time, strength and good looks will spend as little time as possible over the kitchen range in hot weather. Even with all the conveniences of the modern home, it is work that tries patience. And it is all so unnecessary, for just about everything you would like to have in hot weather is carried ready for your use at the Famous Market, 145 and 151 East State street.

Here you can obtain a line of delicatessen goods, baked goods from their own ovens, quality groceries or whole meals. They are pleased to furnish a single dish to supplement your own cooking, or a whole meal packed in picnic style. You might also find a happy change in taking the family there for a meal occasionally, as regular meals are served at the usual hours.

Quality goods and personal attention, prompt deliveries and the utmost courtesy will await your commands at this popular store, and you may be sure that whatever you get from the Famous will be thoroughly enjoyable. The phone number is 529.

Valet Service In Clothes Cleaning

Dry cleaning as practiced at Wark's Inc., at their plant is far more of a service than is usually thought of in connection with this business. In the first place, the cleaning itself is scientifically done with improved machinery. Then, after all the washings necessary to get the utmost cleanliness, with every particle of sand and dirt washed out thoroughly, the goods are gone over and minutely inspected. The pockets and cuffs are turned and tacked back, all buttons are looked after and replaced, loose buttons are tightened up, and minor repairs are made. After these the garments are carefully pressed and again inspected and returned free of odor actually clean and in first class order.

Hats are cleaned also. The process is as painstaking as with garments and the results as satisfactory. Patrons need not be afraid to send the most delicate silks or chiffons to this cleaning establishment. They will be handled most carefully, pressed by hand by workers who have attained expertness at this, and returned in fine shape. A telephone call on 777 will start this service for you.

Rigid Application Of Factors Affords Help

An old adage used to run that three movings were equal to one fire in damage. This may have been true in the days when people who did the moving were not equipped to take care of household goods, when an ordinary dray was piled high with household goods and a team polted these goods over rough streets. But it no longer holds. Moving nowadays, in the hands of a specialist like A. J. Herron, of 1026 Franklin street, is so carefully done that the household equipment is set up in the new place usually without a scratch or an accident. It is first a matter of using the right kind of equipment. Big vans, wherein the goods are packed securely, take household goods on journeys of hundreds of miles and deposit them safely.

Of course skill is required. Then there must be added to that the exercise of plenty of care and attention. Fortunately for the moving public, only those who use skill and care remain long in the business. This concern, with a record of many years, must have given satisfaction to its patrons, or it would not have lasted so long in the business.

Equipment of the right kind, used with good sense, prompt service and faithfulness to the interests of the client have marked their work. Now today, when the necessity of moving is concerned, people in this city think of A. J. Herron. If they can secure his services, they know the job will be taken care of right at the appointed time, that it will be well done, and that the charge for the service rendered will not be out of line. He is also equipped to take care of goods in storage.

Craving For Sweets Nature's Call For More Energy

Like a good many other things that were considered of doubtful value when father was a boy, candy has come into its own. That craving is only nature's call for more energy foods. Sugar is the greatest known food of the kind, and sugar in the attractive form of delicious candy is about the best thing known at that. There is only one precaution to be avoided in candy—that is that the quantity of the confection itself must be beyond reproach. Then nature will generally limit you to the proper amount, and you can be sure that what you do take will be of benefit.

Actually, people would get more done in the world if they reached for a sweet oftener and for the other things less. And when they reach and are rewarded by such bonbons as are made by the Hendricks Candy shoppe at 149 Lincoln avenue the process is pleasanter, too.

This Hendricks establishment has discovered something in candy making few of the other fellows ever get. The result is so fine that Canton, Youngstown, Pittsburgh and other places send to Salem for the best. It is made best by using the right ingredients. Only the purest cane sugar and the richest chocolates go into Hendricks candies. The process of making them is as carefully guarded as the mixing, and as a sequence Hendricks candies are regarded as the most healthful and the most delightful candies to be obtained anywhere.

SALEM COMPANY WIDELY KNOWN

Excellence Of Products
Has Won Reputation
Over Wide Area

When one comes to think about it, it is little short of a miracle to see what modern manufacturing methods do to improve our household comforts. People of this generation take the modern lavatory, bath tub and closets for granted. They rarely think anything about them. Yet these articles, humble as they may be in themselves, have proved a triumph of the chemist's science as well as the artisan's skill.

Building an iron shell may not be much of an accomplishment, although it too has its points, but when it comes to covering that iron shell with a complete coat of what is practically glass—making this coat stick as though it were a part of the iron itself, and then giving it all an artistic finish that can be maintained in the house as long as the house itself will stand—why, it isn't only an achievement to be proud of; it is also a great contribution to comfort, convenience and sanitation.

In the development of this line, the National Sanitary company, which has been in business in Salem for 22 years, has had its share. Today its product is recognized all over the continent as of the highest class. Its bath tubs, its lavatories and its kitchen and bathroom accessories have won the highest kind of commendation for perfection in design and reliable, skilled workmanship.

The company is in a new factory, with the finest kind of automatic machinery. It ships its products to Mexico, Canada and all the States. It has pleasant working conditions, insures its large number of employees through group insurance, contributes greatly to the payroll of Salem, and is a concern in which the entire community may take a great deal of pride.

WRECK SERVICE ECONOMICAL AID

Large Number Of Parts
Recovered From Old
Cars Give Service

When one comes to think about it, the service performed by an auto wrecking company is no inconsiderable one. It has been estimated that about $12,000,000,000 have been spent in cars in the United States in the last 30 years. That sum is dissipated from the capital resources of the nation by the eventual wearing out of the machines. They may have been profitable, so that their use shows a credit balance, but nevertheless it is an appalling sum to put into short lived mechanism.

Now any concern that recovers a part of this vast sum for the public is performing an economic service, and that is what the auto wrecker is doing. He has two ways of saving money for the country. One is in increasing the available supply of old metal, which saves the mines and is a big feature of industrial work. The other is in the salvaging of the parts of these machines. The older a machine gets, of course the greater demand for parts. Yet an owner hesitates about spending the price of new parts needed on an old machine. Here the auto wrecker comes to his rescue.

Parts that are perfectly good are sold to motorists at prices that justify them in fixing up the old machine and thereby getting a greater return on the original investment. For instance, the Salem Scrap and Wrecking company, corner Penn and Pershing, affords a market for the worn-out or wrecked car, and then salvages the parts of these cars that are serviceable, selling them away below the sum that would be required for this part new. Coupled with their business of buying all kinds of metal scrap, they have made themselves an economic asset to the city as well as a great convenience to a large number of motorists who have found their needs supplied quickly.

WASHINGTON—We seem to like caviar. The national geographic society notes that last year 300 tons were imported from Russia and Americans paid $600,000 for it. Time was when strurgeon were plentiful in the Great Lakes and this country exported the eggs.

Dry Chief of N. J. To Hit Supply Source

Alexander MacPhee, new prohibition administrator of New Jersey, goes into office to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer to Detroit of Dwight Davis. MacPhee's job is made the harder because of his State's wet sentiment, which is constantly growing as prominent politicians take its side. He declares he will hit the source of supply.

hat price do you pay for GASOLINE?

Are you one of those who say "I won't use Ethyl Gasoline because I can't see the extra price?"
Then consider this: What is the price you actually pay for running your motor on ordinary fuel?
If you investigate, you'll find that you are paying as much or more for ordinary gasoline as it would cost you to use Pennzoil Ethyl. That's because Pennzoil Ethyl gives you greater mileage. You don't have to buy it so often.
Use Pennzoil Ethyl and avoid gummy deposits, clogged screens or carburetors. That's because the base gasoline is a clean gasoline, absolutely free from impurities. Pennzoil Ethyl eliminates frequent valve-grindings and carbon-removals. All part of the price you pay for using ordinary gasoline.
In other words, Pennzoil Ethyl actually saves you money! Is there any reason, then, why you should go a day longer without enjoying the smooth, powerful motor performance this scientific anti-knock, gum-free gasoline will give you?

Crown Prince Offends War Vets

MUNICH, July 3.—Bavarian war veterans are very much aroused over what they call the "interventionism" of Crown Prince Rupprecht, pretender to the Wittelsbach throne.

A proclamation issued by the Front Fighters League lambastes a violent attack against the Crown Prince's attendance at the wedding in Rome of the Italian Crown Prince and the daughter of the King of Belgium. The protest says that "the war veterans are bitterly disappointed at the trip, which took place at a time when our former enemies, through the Young Plan, betray their intention to destroy the German people by means of ruthless exploitation extending over a number of decades."

Notable To Talk To Industrialists

CHICAGO, July 3.—James H. Farney, chairman of the Board of the United States Chamber of Commerce, will address the seventh conference of major industries to be held Oct. 22 at the University of Chicago. Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the university, has announced.

The conference, given under the auspices of the university of the Institute of American Men of Letters, will also have as speakers: C. S. McCain, chairman of the board of the Chase National bank, and M. H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting company.

This will be the second of a series of conferences at which leaders of industry have surveyed the situations of the industries which they represent. Its subject will be the "Current Situation."

HAD GIVEN UP HOPE: KONJOLA TO THE RESCUE

Any Wonder This Lady Is Enthusiastic Over Powers Of New And Different Medicine

MRS. FANNIE WARD

What wiser thing could sufferers do than to follow in the footsteps of the thousands who found Konjola to be the very medicine they needed? Give thought, then, to the statement of Mrs. Fannie Ward, R. F. D. No. 6, Dayton, Ohio, who says:

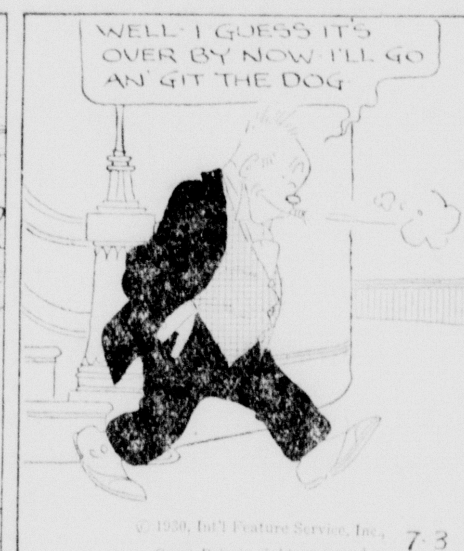

"What a blessing Konjola proved to be to me. For several years I had indigestion; it was impossible to eat anything without suffering afterward. I lost weight and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. In fact, I had given up all hopes of finding relief for everything I tried. But four bottles of Konjola indigestion is gone; I sleep fine and my nerves are quiet. I am gaining in weight and to me there is no medicine to compare with Konjola."

It is true that Konjola, all of its 23 ingredients working together, does bring swift results, though a complete treatment of from six to eight bottles is strongly recommended.

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio, at J. H. Lane Drug Co. 3 stores, and at all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

Conservation Division Of Ohio Outlines Program For 1930

Scope Of Organization Of Great Breadth, Report Shows

COLUMBUS, July 3.—with the announcement of a list of definite proposals, including projects of a wide popular nature, the conservation division of the department of agriculture today prepared to put conservation on a par with welfare and highways in the state's administrative program.

The division will proceed to establish public parks and sanitary camping facilities, under state control, on St. Marys, Indian, Laramie, Portage and Buckeye lakes, state-owned, in order to open up the privileges of these lakes to the general public. A complete survey to settle the state's title to a great amount of land on these lakes disputed by private claimants has been authorized.

State ownership of ample grounds for public use, water control, cottage site development, street and sanitary improvement hereafter will be a fixed policy in all lake developments.

Develop New Lake
A large new lake on state-owned

Today's Pattern

If you would be cool, choose frocks simple of line and sheer of fabric, like the model sketched today. The square neck line, the tiny flared shoulder capes, the long, slender front panel and the added skirt flares are interesting features that proclaim the frock "chick."

Pattern 1969 is delightful fashioned of flat crepe, voile, dimity, lawn or georgette. Tiny colorful flowers printed on a white or pastel ground, or a plain pastel shade would be lovely. Tiny buttons trim the bodice panel.

May be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

COUPON
This pattern will be delivered upon receipt of 15c, coin or stamps, carefully wrapped. Latest Fashion Book 10c. Send all orders to SALEM NEWS PATTERN DEPARTMENT, 243 WEST 17TH STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

land is to be developed in Jefferson county, servicing a section of Eastern Ohio not now supplied with water privileges. The 25-acre recreational lake now under construction at Mt. Gilead will be finished by September, bordered by a 175-acre park and recreation ground. Adjoining it will be a 7-acre rearing lake for bass, permanently closed for fishing, and used exclusively in connection with the inland fish cultural program. Guilford lake, 400 acres in Columbiana county, will be carried to early completion.

Within 30 days experts will begin a study of the Roosevelt game preserve area, near Portsmouth, looking toward the development of this state-owned tract as a game sanctuary and recreational center, without one interfering with the other.

The fish hatcheries at St. Mary's, Defiance, Akron and Bucyrus are to be enlarged, water and land conditions permitting, and developed when funds are available. This follows a study of all hatcheries in Ohio, made by representatives of the federal government, conservation department of Michigan, and Ohio State University.

Other hatchery projects on a large scale are under consideration, and a rearing pool plan will be carried out in connection with them and other projects where additional cost of operation of the ponds will not be involved. The division is experimenting with the production of bass on submerged farm lands near Lake Erie and indications are that this project will prove successful and economical.

The council has recommended the enlargement of all game farm operations, recognizing that present production is inadequate, and is stunning other aids for Ohio sportsmen in scientifically protecting and propagating game.

All counties, except those bordering on Lake Erie, have been organized into 20 districts, four counties in a district, for the purpose of placing a game protector in each county, supervised by a conservation officer in each district. This is believed will insure greater activity and more effective protection.

Conservation officers are now being promoted from the ranks of county game protectors. They will also supervise, in a general way, the distribution of fish and game, and with local assistance ascertain suitable land for such distribution. The council points out, however, that Ohio has less funds than adjacent states for game production.

The announcement of the program followed on the heels of Governor Cooper's conference at the Roosevelt game preserve over the past week end with members of the council, officers of the League of Ohio Sportsmen, Isaac Walton League, and about 100 leading sportsmen and conservationists from throughout the state.

At that time Governor Cooper declared that such a program, besides its direct benefits, will be a long step toward the solution of crime because of its encouragement of the elevating influence of outdoor recreation.

Many Take Vacations
He also pointed out that Ohio people are spending millions of dollars annually for vacations and outings in other states, and enriching the county tax duplicates in other states by investment in summer cottage property. The development of Ohio's great vacation and recreation resources, the governor said, a great portion of the money, at least, can be kept in Ohio.

Formulation of the program was preceded by a period of intensive organization of the conservation division which replaced the fish and game commission and took over the state parks and lakes from the department of public works, pursuant to Governor Cooper's campaign pledge.

As now constituted, the division consists of nine bureaus, each with a chief and definite duties, as follows: Conservation officers, research, hatcheries, accounting, lakes and parks, educational promotion, engineering, Lake Erie supervision, game bird propagation.

The transfer of several million dollars worth of property from the department of public works was completed this spring and the formulation of the comprehensive program followed. It is self-supporting, from licenses and lake revenue.
